

DIGBETH FIRST FRIDAY

Friday 2 June 2017

-  Brum Radio
brumradio.com
-  Thinktank, Birmingham Science Museum
Millennium Point, B4 7XG
-  Grand Union
Unit 19, Minerva Works, 158 Fazeley Street, B5 5RS
-  Stryx
Minerva Works, Fazeley Street, B5 5RS
-  Vivid Projects
Unit 16/Unit 2, Minerva Works, B5 5RT
-  Centrala
Unit 4, Minerva Works, 158 Fazeley Street, B5 5RT
-  Eastside Projects
86 Heathmill Lane, B9 4AR
-  The Edge
79-81 Cheapside, Deritend, B12 0QH
-  The Old Crown
188 High Street, Deritend, B12 0LD

digbethfirstfriday.com
@digbethfirstfri
#digbethfirstfriday

Digbeth comes alive on the first Friday of every month, here's what's on offer this month:

Brum Radio presents Samuel Rodgers, 5–6pm

This Digbeth First Friday, Brum Radio are hosting an artwork by Birmingham based artist and musician Samuel Rodgers. The work is one of a series of short recordings that explore the resonant properties of metal.

Thinktank, Birmingham Science Museum
Kate Paterson: Totality, 5–8pm, £5

Head to Thinktank at Birmingham Science Museum for afterhours, discounted entry to Kate Paterson's stunning artwork 'Totality' including a tour of the night sky in the Planetarium and a free wine or soft drink on arrival.

Grand Union
Room With A View General Election Party, 6–8pm
International Projects at Modern Clay, 6–8pm

Grand Union invite you to join a conversation with political thinkers, and party candidates. Contribute your ideas, reforms, or issues on their Manifesto Pledge Wall, followed by a chaired discussion at 7pm.

In Unit 17 Birmingham School of Art present International Projects at Modern Clay, an exhibition of ceramics.

Stryx
SLOW COOKER: soup ptIV Artists Residency, 6–8.30pm
slice presents Agnes Calf, 6–8.30pm

Catch up with Stryx's current residency artists as they enter the midway point of SLOW COOKER: soup ptIV. Each of the five artists will be showcasing works in progress that have been developed over the course of the residency.

For June's edition of slice, a platform for emerging artists, Essex based artist Agnes Calf has been invited to create a solo presentation in the newly transformed workshop space at Stryx.

Vivid Projects: Black Hole Club, 7–9pm

Black Hole Club and Vivid Projects invite you in for an evening of aural experimentations made in response to the news that FM radio transmission signal is slowly being deprecated in favour of digital radio signals.

Centrala
Last chance to see 'poetryartexchange (Romania/UK)', 6pm–late
Room7 presents FLUX, 6–9pm
Supersonic Social, 8pm–late

Join Centrala as they mark the ending of their current show with an evening of live poetry performances. They will also be showcasing 'Inland', a zine that explores gender.

Room7 present their first exhibition in collaboration with Grand Union and Centrala, this Digbeth First Friday presenting the work of West Midlands based artists Mark Houghton, James Lomax, Anna Parker and Zoe Robertson.

Tonight Supersonic are taking over the upstairs space at Centrala with a good ol' Festival Frolic. Expect DJ sets from Mothwasp, Girls Girls Girls, Dorcha, Sausage + more! Themed Cocktails & Snacks, Supersonic Visuals, plus a Superspecial Performance from Birmingham's very own unique and rare species – GORILLABOT.

Eastside Projects: Late night opening of Production Show: Artists House, 6–8pm

Eastside Projects are leaving their doors open late this evening for the chance to see their recently opened exhibitions 'Production Show: Artists House' and 'the conditions we've set up for ourselves' by Alice Gale-Feeny.

The Old Crown: Digbeth First Friday Party, 6pm–late

Summer is here and to mark this occasion Digbeth First Friday are taking over Brum's oldest boozier. Leave the car at home!

The Edge: Club Integral, 8pm–late, £5

This Digbeth First Friday The Edge are treating you to a line up of live music from Sean O'Hagan, Seikou Susso, Bethany Kay, The Happy Couple and John Row. They will also be offering Albert's delicious South African Ubuntu Bakery & Foods for sale too - you lucky things!